Section B: Member advice fees

- IOOF Investment Management Limited (IIML), as trustee of your super fund, is required to obtain specific written consent before a fee for financial advice can be deducted from your account. You are not under any obligation to consent to the fee being deducted.
- You may revoke your consent at any time by contacting IIML via the options at the end of this form. Once your consent is revoked, no further fees will be deducted from your account however any amounts paid before you revoke your consent will not be automatically refunded.
- The default value for each member advice fee is 0% or $0, unless you agree and specify otherwise below in conjunction with your financial adviser.
- Member advice fees can only be deducted from your super account if they relate to advice you receive about your super or pension benefits, insurance and investments.
- Where you agree to a member advice fee, please ensure you sign the 'Member advice fees' declaration in Step 14.
- The member advice fee(s) paid to your financial adviser are inclusive of GST. The actual amount deducted from your account may be less than the amount quoted. This is because the Fund may be able to claim a reduced input tax credit (RITC) on some of these fees. Where the Fund is able to claim an RITC the benefit is passed on to you which effectively reduces the fee. Note that the RITC rules are subject to change and this may impact the RITC available in the future.
- For further information on advice fees, please refer to the Product Disclosure Statement.

- I can revoke my nomination at any time in accordance with the Trustee's procedures.
- the revocation of my nomination will take effect when it has been received and accepted by the Trustee (applicable to revocation only).
- once my nomination is revoked, I will no longer have a valid Beneficiary Nomination unless I provide new Beneficiary Nomination Instructions (applicable to revocation only).
- if I do not have a valid Beneficiary Nomination in effect at the date of my death, the Trustee must pay my benefit in accordance with the rules set out in the Fund's Trust Deed (as amended from time to time). These rules are available in the current Pursuit disclosures and guides, which can be downloaded from the IOOF website (www.ioof.com.au) (applicable to revocation only).

Applicable to Binding Nomination only

- 100% of my benefit must be allocated (the entire nomination will be invalid if the allocation does not equal 100%).
- I must sign and date my nomination in the presence of two witnesses both of whom are at least 18 years of age and not nominated to receive my benefit.
- my nomination will expire three years after the date it was first signed, or last confirmed or amended (Confirmation of Binding Nomination form available from our website).

Application for Insurance

Incorporates personal health statement

This form should also be used to apply for or change any existing insurance you may have EXCLUDING any retail insurance cover. To apply for or vary any retail insurance cover, you must contact your financial adviser.

Please complete these instructions in BLACK INK and ✓ boxes where provided.

Step 1: Applicant details

Account number (if known)						-		_
Title (Dr/Mr/Mrs/Ms/Miss)					Su	rnar	ne
Given name(s)
Email
Date of birth		/		/								(-	iend	er [Male	e [- ema	ale

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a life insurance contract, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect their decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you.

You have the same duty before you extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk they insure you for;
- is common knowledge;
- they know or should know as an insurer;
- they have waived your duty to tell them about.

If you do not tell the insurer something

In exercising the following rights, the insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If they do, they may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

If you do not tell the insurer anything you are required to, and they would not have insured you if you had told them, they may void the contract within three years of entering into it.

If the insurer chooses not to void the contract, they may, at any time, reduce the amount you have been insured for. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had told them everything you should have. However, if the contract has a surrender value, or provides cover on death, the insurer may only exercise this right within three years of entering into the contract.

If the insurer chooses not to void the contract or reduce the amount you have been insured for, they may, at any time vary the contract in a way that places them in the same position they would have been in if you had told them everything you should have. However, this right does not apply if the contract has a surrender value or provides cover on death.

If your failure to tell the insurer is fraudulent, they may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed

If any of the answers you give in this application are unclear to us, we would like to be able to clarify them with you over the telephone, as this can save delays in finalising your insurance.
